

Scholarship Application

Professional Development Seminar

“Making Sense of the Economic Puzzle”

Arlington, VA

April 12-14, 2010

Scholarship Criteria

1) Applicants must be graduate students in the field of economics, finance or related areas of study; economics faculty; or young professionals employed in a position that uses business economics and related disciplines in their primary job responsibilities.

2) Applicants need to submit a short essay (no more than one double-spaced page) explaining why attending the NABE PDS would be a worthwhile learning experience to help broaden and deepen their understanding and application of business economics to advance their career in this field.

4) Scholarship awardees are expected to attend and actively participate in the full PDS program and use the networking opportunities to meet other students and professionals in the field.

5) A Certificate of Completion will be awarded to all participants attending the PDS as an acknowledgement of their successful study of key concepts, relationships and data in the field of business economics.

To Submit This Application:

Attach your essay to this application.

Mail to:

The NABE Foundation
ATTN: Scholarship Committee
1233 20th Street NW
#505
Washington, DC 20036

Fax to: 202.463.6239

Application must be received by :

March 19, 2010

Awardees will be contacted on March 24.

Full Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State Zip: _____

Phone Numbers (cell, work, home): _____

Email Address: _____

<input type="checkbox"/> Graduate <input type="checkbox"/> Professor/Teacher <input type="checkbox"/> Professional	Company or School: _____
	Title: _____
	Years as an economist: _____

Requesting:

- Full Scholarship ($395)
- Partial Scholarship of $ _____

Please answer the following questions:

If you are employed, will your company devote any resources for your professional development to cover the cost of the seminar, including any travel, meals and lodging that you may incur? Please explain.

Attach your answer to the following question using a separate sheet of paper:
Explain why attending The NABE Foundation's Professional Development Seminar would broaden and deepen your understanding and application of business economics to the advancement of your career.